The Price of Pleasure.

It is hard for a lovely woman to forego the pleasures of the life which she was created to enjoy and adorn. She may have to be busy all day in office or in store, yet she cannot deny herself the social pleasures which are offered her. But the fatigue is often too great for her, and the sufferings from headache and backache as a consequence of over-exertion. Women who are tired and worn out will find a perfect tonic and nerve in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures headache, backache and the other aches and pains to which women are subject. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. I am so pleased with your instructions, I have decided to give you for your "little favor," writes Mrs. M. B. Rymer, Co. G, 1st Reg. U. S. Cavalry, U. S. Army, Fort Sill, Okla. "I suffered so much with great pains in my back and the lower part of my stomach and palpitation of the heart, that at times I could hardly lie down. I could hardly get up in the morning, but after using three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, I am like a new woman."

Sick women, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and is answered confidentially. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE HARTFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT THE ORIGINAL LIVER MEDICINE

A yellow complexion, dizziness, biliousness and a coated tongue are common indications of liver and kidney diseases. Stomach and bowel troubles, severe as they are, give immediate warning by pain, but liver and kidney troubles, though less painful at the start, are much harder to cure. The Hartford's Black-Draught never fails to break up diseased liver and weakened kidneys. It stirs up the torpid liver to throw off the burden of disease. It is a certain preventive of cholera and Bright's disease of the kidneys. With kidneys reinforced by The Hartford's Black-Draught thousands of persons have dwelt in the midst of yellow fever. Many families live in perfect health and have no other doctor than The Hartford's Black-Draught. It is always on hand for use in an emergency and saves many expensive calls of a doctor. It is the best medicine for me that is on the market for liver and kidney troubles and dyspepsia and other complaints. Rev. A. G. LEWIS.

MARRIAGE.

"Old Gordon Graham," "Pork Packer, Chicago. Writes to His Son, Pierrepont.

DEAR PIERREPONT—Of course you are in no position yet to think of being engaged even, and that's why I'm a little afraid that you may be planning to get married. But a twelve-dollar clerk, who owes fifty dollars for roses, needs a keeper more than a wife. I want to say right here that there always comes a time to the fellow who blows fifty-two dollars at a lick on roses, when he thinks how many staple groceries he could have bought with the money. After all, there's no tool like a young fool, because, in the nature of things, he's got a long time to live.

I suppose I'm fanning the air when I ask you to be guided by my judgment in this matter, because, while a young fellow will consult his father about buying a horse, he's cocksure of himself when it comes to picking a wife. Marriages may be made in Heaven, but most engagements are made in the back parlor, with the gas so low that a fellow doesn't really get a square look at what's he taking. While a man doesn't see much of a girl's family when he's courting, he's apt to see a good deal of it when he's housekeeping; and while he doesn't wed his wife's father, there's nothing in the marriage vow to prevent the old man from borrowing money from him and you can bet it's old job Dasher he'll do it. A man can't pick his own mother, but he can pick his son's mother, and when he chooses a father-in-law who plays the bucket shop, he needs to be surprised if his own son plays the rascal.

Never marry a poor girl who's been raised like a rich one. She's simply traded the virtues of the poor for the vices of the rich without going long on her good points. To marry for money or to marry without money is a crime. There's no real objection to marrying a woman with a fortune, but there is to marrying a fortune with a woman. Money makes the mare go, and it makes her cut up, too, unless she's used to it and you drive her with a snaffle-bit.

When you are at it, there's nothing like picking out a good-looking wife, because even the handsomest woman looks homely sometimes, and so you get a little variety, but a homely one can look worse than usual. Beauty is only skin deep, but that's deep enough to satisfy any reasonable man. (I want to say right here that to get any sense out of a proverb I usually find that I have to turn it wrong side out.) Then, too, if a fellow's bound to marry a fool, and a lot of men have to if they're going to hitch up to a well-matched team, there's nothing like picking a good-looking one.

I believe in short engagements and long marriages. I don't see any sense in a fellow's sitting around on the mourner's bench with the sinners after he's really got religion. The time to size up the other side's strength is before the engagement.

Some fellows propose to a girl before they know whether her front and her back hair match, and then boller that they're stuck when they find that she's got a cork leg and a glass eye as well. I haven't any sympathy with them.

They start out on the principle that married people have only one meal a day, and that of fried oysters and tuff-frutti ice cream after the theater. Naturally, a girl's got her better nature and her best complexion along under those circumstances; but the really valuable thing to know is how she approaches ham and eggs at seven a. m., and whether she brings her complexion with her to the breakfast table. And these fellows make a girl believe that they're going to spend all the time between eight and eleven p. m., for the rest of their lives, holding a hundred and forty pounds, live weight, in their lap, and saying that it feels like a feather. The thing to find out is whether, when one of them gets up to holding a ten pound baby in his arms for five minutes, he's going to carry on as if it weighed a ton.

—From "Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer. By permission of Small, Maynard & Co., Publishers, Boston, Mass., in the American Farm and Orchard.

Too Great a Risk. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists.

Stand by Your Town. Next to a man's family and business, nothing should stand dearer to his heart than the town in which he lives. It is his home. It is the place where he earns his competence and educates his children. If he wants to make it as popular, as thrifty and widely known as possible, he cannot afford to be indifferent to anything which will further these ends. It can be said that a town that is not worthy of the devotion of its citizens in making it the town which is not worth while to live at all. If a town is worth anything it is worthy of our greatest energy, whether we merely take our share of the common benefits accruing to the town and community we call home, or risk our all in its commerce.

GREATLY ALARMED By a Persistent Cough, but Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cough which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it. "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by all druggists.

VALPARAISO, IND.

Dear Old Republican.—I have often thought since I've been here that I'd write a few lines to let the people, down in God's country, know that I'm not yet dead. I left Ohio county on January 13, this year, to enter school here, and when I left home it was nice weather for winter, but when I reached this place I found fourteen inches of snow, and it stayed, more or less, until March 1, but now we are having very pretty weather, but needing rain.

Valparaiso is forty miles southeast of Chicago, fourteen miles from Lake Michigan and sixteen miles north of Kankakee river, which is claimed, is the finest stream for fishing in this state. The country is a little hilly—just enough to add beauty to the landscape—and the soil very fertile, and I might add, very high priced. The people do not raise near so much fruit as in Kentucky, but grow grains—especially corn.

This little city has a population of about 6,000, and has beautifully shaded residence streets. Most of the streets are brick paved or macadamized.

The school here has a very large attendance—3,100 pupils are enrolled this term in the various departments. The school owns magnificent buildings for various purposes. Science Hall is said to be the finest building owned by any school, and devoted entirely to laboratory work, and it is in this building that I must await and toll for nine hours every day. The dining halls are something great. It would seem to be almost impossible to feed 3,000 people three times a day and not run out of grub, but it is managed to the satisfaction of all concerned. Our bill of fare is regular and constant, but wholesome and nutritious and of a better quality than would be expected for $1.40 per week.

One of the advantages of attending an institution like this is the coming in contact with people of all nationalities, and from almost every corner of the globe. A person never can fully understand the characteristics of other nationalities until he jostles for elbow room, and that is the case here. In the pharmacy class (of which I am proud to be a member), are found seven young men who have come a distance of from 1,000 to 13,000 miles to join the class, and they are a credit to their countries. For they make us "natives" get down and scratch to keep ahead of them.

Trusting for every one a happy life and hoping for the folks at home a good "tobacco season" I have the honor to be now and for all time an Ohio county boy.

ALBERT M. ACTON.

A Farmer Straightened Out. "A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and told him to use it freely and if not satisfied after using it he need not pay a cent for it," says C. P. Rayder, of Pottsville, Pa. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, 'give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I want it in the house all the time for it cured me.'" For sale by all druggists.

REVENUE OFFICIAL

Takes an Illicit Distillery—Incidentally Makes Impromptu Temperance Talk.

That Deputy Collector Randall is possessed of a fine literary ability and will make a successful story writer if he ever decides to give up the chasing of "moonshiners" was demonstrated by the receipt of a report from him of a capture of a distillery at Blackwater Creek last week. Part of the report describes the capture of the moonshiner, and reads as follows:

"At 1 o'clock in the morning we left the glades, and after riding two hours we reached the place and had no trouble in locating the plant. It was not being operated, so we cancelled ourselves nearby, and three hours later we were rewarded for our long wait by seeing a distiller walk in and begin work as though he were at a registered distillery. After watching his movements for a while we eased up quietly until we were within a few feet of the plant. I said: 'Good morning.' I wish you could have seen him at that moment. He looked up with a smile to return our greeting, but when he recognized us the blood seemed to leave his face and the pleasant look in his eye changed instantly to one of fear. He seemed to be suddenly taken with severe chills. His knees began to shake and a bunch of kindling wood in his left hand fell to the ground. His tongue refused to act. There he stood, shivering, the perfect picture of guilt. At last he pulled himself together enough to say: 'Well, this beats the devil.'"

"I answered: 'You are right. We've got the devil beaten this time. It becomes my painful duty to dissect and burn him. You can cover your face if you are not strong enough to witness the operation, for it will, in the end, prove fatal. Yet it is best and for your good. Devils of this character must register for use before operations begin.'"

Mr. Randall was in Louisville last week, and this is the first that has been heard about him since he left—Louisville Herald.

The Best Liniment. "I have derived great benefit from the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and lumbago," says Mrs. Anna Hagelans, of Tuckahoe, N. J. "My husband used it for a sprained back and was also quickly relieved. In fact it is the best family liniment I have ever used. I would not think of being without it. I have recommended it to many and they always speak very highly of it and declare its merit are wonderful." For sale by all druggists.

The Kentucky Summer. Summer, glad, golden and glorious, is here. It sings with the birds, whispers with the brooks, smiles with the lakes, rejoices with the growing corn. Child of the sun, it comes, as Thompson says, in the pride of youth attended by the sultry hours and by fanning breeze. Its air is sweeter than wine. The thirsty sun drinks the dew that lies on the morning grass. White clouds and light mists in soft embrace hold the sunshine asleep. The lofty elm stands in respectful dignity, its shade offering small relief from heat. Along the charming countryside all is silent save the faint and broken murmur of the bee, taking sweet tribute from early flowers and then actively on wing once more. Through open doors there is an odor of flowers, the gray heliotrope, sky mignonette and white sweet clove. Whittier's symphony of peace prevails everywhere on field and farm. It is a growing time, and the stalwart cultivator of the soil rejoices as he views Nature's bounty paid by day unfolded. The sweet attractions of country life invite the dwellers in crowded city to their enjoyment. The children of the thronged urban quarters, to whom verdure and running stream are a delight, revel in the exhilarating enjoyments of a brief country life. The trees, the birds, the quaint farmhouses, the horses and cattle, are all objects of a delighted curiosity. The little ones from the city in rural quarters for the summer drink in health and strength and happiness with the atmosphere they breathe. The country life of the United States in summer has with it a charm such as rural life elsewhere does not possess. There is here more real enjoyment of life than anywhere else. There are busy days betimes in summer for the American farmer, but his work is systematic and rarely crowds him too closely. Every section of our broad land has its summer beauties, but Kentucky, with verdant valley, majestic forest, waving field and rapid river, presents scenes as fascinating as the world offers. To the lover of Nature, Kentucky, in her rich robes of summer, offers sweet communication speaking a varied language. For his gayer hours she has what Bryant so well calls a "voice of gladness and a smile, and an eloquence of beauty." Into his hours of reflection "she glides with a mild and healing sympathy," which steals away the sharpness of sorrow ere he is aware.

Kentucky, attractive, radiant and magnificent, thy presence in summer is invested with a charm, comeliness, grace and brilliancy delightful to every beholder! At no time do thy hospitable homes appear so inviting, when the smiles beauty of our peerless womanhood rivals the gleams of auroral splendor! The heart of every true Kentuckian, within and without the State, goes back in the glory of summer time to the scenes of childhood, the dear old Kentucky home, with "its orchard, the meadow, the deep tangled wildwood every loved spot" which infancy knew and advancing years love to dwell upon. Summer by the seaside, summer under French or Swiss or Italian sky has its charms and delights, but the summer that is sweetest to anyone who has ever tasted of its wealth of gladness is the summer enjoyed amid the rural enchantments of Kentucky, its happy, restful hours, broad fields, silver streams, gorgeous woodlands, for the lavish picturesqueness of Nature is here enriched and ennobled by the bravest manhood and most beautiful womanhood on earth.—Louisville Herald.

Long Buried Whisky. "I see that another search is being made for the Twilight City," said Geo. Hoskins, of Omaha, the other day. "When you talk of looking for buried treasure, and hunting for the gold hidden by pirates, don't overlook the fact that out in the winding bend of the Missouri river is a bonanza which puts all the tales of Capt. Kidd in the shade."

"Four hundred barrels of whisky, over 50 years old, lie somewhere between Omaha and St. Joseph, Mo., and the man who finds them will have a fortune for the rest of his days. It has been disputed that the whisky has been improved by age, as it is doubtful whether it has had a chance to evaporate sufficiently. But I would be willing to take chances on its quality, especially as the romantic story of its loss and the attempt to find it would be sure to give it a good price."

"Along in 1853 the Twilight City set out from Louisville with a cargo of whisky and supplies for the Northwest. Gold hunters were making big stakes on both slopes of the Rockies, and prospectors were willing to pay good prices for whisky. The steamboat carried about as good a brand of Bourbon as ever went out of the Bluegrass State. She took on more supplies at St. Louis and proceeded up the Missouri. Everything went all right until the boat passed St. Joseph. But one night the packet struck a snag and sank in the middle of the channel."

"Ordinarily it would have been easy enough to recover the cargo of the packet, but unusual conditions accompanied the voyage of the Twilight City. The pilot did not know the river very well. There was danger of attack by Indians, for it must be remembered that 50 years ago Omaha was nothing but a trading post. For this reason no immediate attempt was made to raise the boat. The shifting bed of the Missouri did the rest. A big freshet came in the following spring, and the turbid stream selected a new channel. The owners thought they would be able to find traces of their boat, but the quicksands had buried the packet until not even the smokestack was visible."

"For years efforts have been made to find the Twilight City. Excavations have been made in the old bed and steam drills have been set to work over the spot where it was thought the vessel had gone down. Thousands of dollars have been spent in the search. About a month ago some capitalists, who had been interested in a former effort to find the lost boat, got a trace of an old man who was a cabin boy on the packet at the time she sank. He claimed to be able to show the position of the boat, and produced an old chart of the river which was used 50 years ago. This syndicate expects to find the liquid treasure, whose value some enthusiasts enough to value at $5,000,000."—New York Press.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS FOR FIFTEEN YEARS

Professor Powell, of Washington, D. C., Recommends Pe-ru-na.

PROF. W. B. POWELL, Supt. Public Schools, Washington, D. C.

Prof. W. B. Powell, of Washington, D. C., is one of the best known educators in the country. For fifteen years he has been Superintendent of the Public Schools of Washington, which is considered the best school system in the United States. Professor Powell is the author of a number of school books which are used throughout the United States.

This well known gentleman does not hesitate to recommend Peru-na to his countless friends and acquaintances all over the United States. In a recent letter from 140 N. street, N. W., Washington, D. C., to Dr. Hartman, he says: "Persuaded by a friend I have used Peru-na as a tonic, and I take pleasure in recommending your remedy. Peru-na is indeed a good medicine and should be in every household."—W. B. POWELL.

SUCH straightforward evidence cannot be overlooked. What the common people say carries weight, but when a man of national prominence says "Peru-na should be used in every household," it is a significant fact to the increasing prominence and undoubted efficacy of Peru-na.

Peru-na is of national fame as a cathartic remedy. It is the only internal systemic cathartic remedy known to the medical profession. It makes diseased mucous membranes healthy, whether it be the mucous membrane lining the nose, throat, lungs, stomach, kidneys or pelvic organs. It cures various diseases of all these organs, because two-thirds of the ills of mankind are due to catarrhs. With healthy mucous membranes, climatic diseases lose their terror, the system is enabled to throw off contagion, and health follows inevitably.

Mr. A. T. Wood, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes: "For many years I have been a sufferer from catarrh, and have spent time and money with physicians and used many kinds of remedies which were 'guaranteed cures,' but I never saw any money thrown away. 'I resented no benefit whatever from them.' In my search for relief I purchased a bottle of Peru-na, having no confidence in it whatever at the time. This was about one year ago, and I began to improve and was able to attend to my business without being constantly hampered by every kind of pain known to a human being. My hearing, which was almost entirely gone in one ear, got very much better. The medicine not only seems to cure, but to prevent disease."

"The winter when every one was suffering from the grippe, I stood like a stone wall, absolutely proof against it. I am not a believer in 'patent medicines,' having found the majority of them false, but I do not hesitate to recommend Peru-na as the best medicine for catarrh the world has ever seen. I keep a bottle of it at home constantly and shall continue to do so, because I believe it to be the best medicine on earth. I never leave home that I don't put a bottle of it in my grip."

A. T. WOOD. Mr. Evan D. Bowen, Dodge City, Kan., writes: "I have had catarrh of the stomach for seven years, and I began to think that I never was going to be cured. At the time I began taking Peru-na, I was unable to make more than one or two trips on the road at a time, not being able to keep anything on my stomach. I then weighed 160 pounds. I have been taking Peru-na since that time and have never lost a trip, and now weigh 180 pounds."—Evan D. Bowen.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis. Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

DEMOCRATIC PRAYER.

Oh Thou Great Spirit of Democracy, thou who used to dwell in Tom Jefferson when he picked up a huge gob of social chaos and carved the Democratic party out of it with the trenchant point of his penknife; we come tumbling down, nearly breaking our necks, this morning, for the purpose of confessing our political sins. But Glorious Spirit, we will just be everlastingly glad gumbled if we know what to say. We confess that we don't know what to confess. We are in the middle of more sorts of a bad fix than we ever have been before in our lives. We are afraid to confess that we voted for Cleveland because that knewest that Cleveland points to thy holy name with pride. We are afraid to confess that we have holed and voted for Bryan, for Billy claims closer kinship to thee than Grover. Great Guiding Power, if we haint got ourselves into the middle of a devil of a bad fix we would just like to know the reason. What are we to do? How can we get out of this awful dilemma? Canst thou let fall one ray of political light to illuminate the dark and crooked places in our thorny pathway? If we have shot too many riggers, told too many lies and stuffed too many ballot boxes to merit thy favor, then what in the name of politics are we to do?

We confess that we are just fairly dying to do something and we wait so very particular what it is. Just anything for a change. Because thou knowest we holed and followed Cleveland till there wasn't any meat on our political bones, so to speak. Then thou knowest we ripped around after Bryan and free silver till one could hold us up toward the sun and see fish worms of political rotteness wiggling in our inwards. We have fought for harmony till there ain't nothing to fight for now but a bad smell. If we don't need help nobody never did. If we don't get some help pretty soon we will never need it, for we are just positively pestered politically.

We beseech thee, Most Holy Democratic Ghost, to toss a few crumbs of comfort at us. If thou canst not afford to shower a very profuse shower of comfort on our heads, then just let alip a small smile that we may know that thou approvest our ways. We want to feel like somebody would smile on us. The radicals have jagged us with their "we told you so!" till we don't know straight up any more.

We implore thee to help us to know what we want. We need a leader, but we don't know whom to get that can lead us. We want a leader that looks like a Democrat to us whether he does or not to other folks. We are willing to confess anything if it will get us a leader. We are willing to swear that we haint got sense enough to lead a blind goose to water if it will help us on to the road to success and pie. Thou knowest that the Democratic party can't exist long out of the spirit world without pie. We don't yet want to join the caravan of the departed but we must confess that we can't stay here long with no pie in our mouths and Teddy Roosevelt and Mark Hanna and the whole Republican party after us. Smile on us with a broad, Democratic smile and tell us what to do to avert these dad gummed radicals. Nerve us up for the fray of 1904 and stand by us in the midst of the battle and all the glory shall be thine, worlds without end. Amen.—Yellow Jacket.

JAKE ROWE has been indicted again for official misconduct. This makes the "steenth" time. Puzzle for the tax payer: Find out what becomes of these indictments?

SERVING on the petit jury here in Ohio county has come to be a fascinating pastime. The present term of court has made life for the present jury one grand sweet custard pie.

THE Republicans of Kentucky will hold mass conventions in each county on May 11th, to send delegates to the State Convention, which will be held in Louisville on July 15.

THE man who never fails is the one who has never undertaken anything. Our overthrows are the very best discipline. We are only stronger by being made conscious of our weakness.

JO BLACKBURN once said: "I hope to live long enough to see United States Senators elected by a direct vote of the people." The people of Kentucky will be proud enough when they get to see another Governor elected that way.

A BUFFALO firm states that it will soon be able to furnish the newly discovered and very wonderful metal—radium—at the shamefully insignificant price of $78,000 per pound. We are willing to accept a few complimentary ounces for making this announcement.

THINGS look flattering for the Republicans over in Missouri and, if present indications don't change, they will soon be able to carry the State. Within less than a year's time fifteen hundred Democratic officials have been convicted and sent to serve terms in the penitentiary. This begins to look like the unfettered Democracy of Missouri was slowly but surely petering out.

ALLIE YOUNG, with the fluff and bloom and exuberance of potential power, seems to have arrived at the conclusion that the management of things, in general, is unwise, and that here and there are little odds and ends where the Creator has missed it. He fancied he could improve on Divine economy in the Democrat primary mess in Louisville, but Judge Caruth, with cold-hearted indifference, disagreed with him.

THE Court of Appeals has handed down a decision compelling Cantrill to vacate the bench in the Caleb Powers case. But the recent Legislature made ample provision for any such emergencies by giving the Governor the power to appoint a special judge in the event of any kind of vacancies. This decision must have brought a faint gleam of hope into the bosom of the unfortunate political prisoner at Georgetown, for Beckham will hardly be able to find a Democrat this side of the land of eternal summer so thoroughly steeped in partisanship, so completely destitute of human sympathy and so utterly heartless as Cantrill.

THE Democratic party in Kentucky begins to look like the Chinaman who attempted to ride the bronco. Chairman Young's latest blow seems to have knocked its spleen into the northwest corner of its throat, and its upper left-hand deodessimo into the subsequent circle of Willis. It will soon be in order for a coroner's jury, with the aid of a chemist, to make a report on the shapeless and shattered mass of disorganized profanity.

WELL indeed has a distinguished Southern writer said: "Let us turn our minds from the dead past to the living future. Disband our 'Daughters of the Confederacy' and 'Sons of Veterans,' and organize, in their stead, clubs in each town to study the needs and duties and resources and opportunities around us, thus putting our energies and thought into the present and future. Let the rest of our monuments to the 'lost cause' be men and women of granite solidity of character and granite whiteness of purpose."

Ohio County Boys.

Dr. W. S. Williams, of Uniontown, has formed a partnership with his brother, Dr. J. R. Williams, of this city, and will move here about the 15th of May. They will enlarge their dental rooms in the Peoples building, and with the additional equipment will have the most complete and modern dental parlors to be found in these parts.

Dr. W. S. Williams has the reputation of being the best Dentist in Western Kentucky. He possesses a thorough knowledge of the profession and has enjoyed a large practice for the past ten years. Dr. J. R. Williams has been in our city about a year, and has proven himself to be far above the average as a Dentist, and has more than he can do. For this reason the gentlemen have concluded to make Shawneetown their headquarters, and will do work in all the adjoining counties and Union county, Ky. We are glad to have such excellent gentlemen and professional men become citizens of our town.—Shawneetown News-Gleaner.

Here is a puzzle that puzzles everybody: Take the number of your living brothers, double the amount, add to it three, multiply by five, add to it the number of living sisters, multiply the result by ten, add the number of deaths of brothers and sisters and subtract 150 from the result. The right hand figure will be the number of deaths, the middle will be the number of living sisters, and the left will show the number of living brothers. Try it and see.—Ex.

DISPLAY OF THE WEED.

Kentucky Tobacco Signally Honored by Fair Officials.

ALL GROWERS TO SEND IN SAMPLES.

Premium Specimens From the Different Tobacco Fairs Will Contribute to the Success of the Exhibit—A Special Sub-Committee Asks That This Interest Be Kept Alive.

The Tobacco Exhibit committee of the Kentucky Tobacco Association is rapidly maturing its plans for a display of the "weed" at the World's Fair next year. As has been stated in these columns before, Kentucky will have 50 per cent of the total amount of space given to tobacco in the Agricultural building. This means that the committee in charge of the display from the Blue Grass state will have at its disposal 5,000 square feet.

Mr. Chas. D. Campbell, the chairman of this committee, proposes to make the exhibit not only instructive and valuable, but strikingly original. At the next meeting of his committee he will present a plan that will contemplate securing from every tobacco grower in the state—and there are something like 20,000 of them—a sample of premium tobacco. He is not making public the scheme of his exhibit, but enough of it is known for him to assure the public that every tobacco grower who contributes a sample will be given full credit in the display for his donation, and will be proud of the fact that he has contributed a good specimen.

COL. SAM H. STONE, Chairman Tobacco Exhibit Committee on Tobacco.

Mr. Campbell has a committee consisting of about a score of the state's best known tobacco people, representing every distinctive type of this Kentucky product. He has recently issued a letter to the members, asking each to secure in his district, 30 samples with the name of the donor on each sample, and to represent in the samples collected, each grade of tobacco from trash to fine leaf. These samples will consist of 15 hands. They may be from the 1902 crop or the 1903 crop. In case they are from the former, they will have to be delivered in Louisville before Oct. 1, if from the latter, not later than March 1 next year.

The Missouri Commission of the World's fair has set aside $30,000 for the casting in bronze, for permanent preservation in Forest park, of the statue of Napoleon, to be executed by Daniel G. French, of Jefferson, by J. Q. A. Ward, and of the statue symbolic of Missouri, which will occupy a place in the Terrace of States. The statue of Napoleon and Jefferson will stand at the edge of the Grand Basin respectively west and south of the Educational building and east and south of the Electricity building.

(Seven years ago a Kansas man, who got poor while trying to be a politician, pulled up stakes and went to Oklahoma to build up his fortune by raising potatoes. To day he is worth $50,000 and every dollar came from his potato patch. Moral: There is more money in potatoes than in politics.)

BECKHAM ARRAIGNED.

An Ohio County Democrat Shows Many Reasons Why He Should be Defeated.

Will some machine Democrat, whose reputation as such, is irreproachable, be so kind as to answer the following questions and thereby oblige a brother anti-machineist:

1st. The State of Kentucky, to my personal knowledge, refuses or fails to buy linsey underwear for the use in winter, of her female patients at the Hopkinsville Asylum for the insane, although, for sanitary reasons, they are required to take out exercise in winter, thus clad—why the failure?

2nd. Does such deplorable conditions exist at Lakeland and Lexington? Is there a medical treatise extant, supporting the theory that insane women are oblivious to the sensibilities and effects produced by exposure to cold?

3rd. Is the State of Kentucky justifiable in adopting the judicious method of subsidizing an hereditary tendency to insanity by killing her crazy women or of reducing those who may survive the experience to a state of physical weakness?

4th. If the thermometer was standing below zero, and your wife was at home, would you, unless you were crazy yourself, think of taking her out for a stroll to exhilarate her mind and benefit her health, clad in a calico dress and short factory cotton underwear? If you would, you may dispense with the trouble of answering these questions—your evidence would not be accepted.

5th. Where may I find a precedent for the practice of such brutal economy?

6th. Does Gov. Beckham know that between nine and twelve thousands of dollars furnished by the State of Kentucky (under his administration) to the Hopkinsville Asylum has been economically hoarded up at the expense and discomfort of those insane, dependent patients? If he does, the gratitude I feel to have owed him for carrying in 1901, the Democratic banner to success in Kentucky, has long since been settled. If he does not, then his dereliction in office has been too heinously unmitigated to catch my compliments or my Democratic vote.

I certainly feel a greater obligation to my wife than do I to Gov. Beckham. I feel also that my political fidelity has a right to be contingent upon, at least, in a limited sense, party and administrative purity. Therefore if you would pride in the college of a word at my expense, please to call that word uncontenting for assuredly I am not in doubt. Notwithstanding the fact that my wife is a charity patient at Hopkinsville, she was never denied the comfort of linsey at home, and I still could have supplied her that luxury, but was not informed until March of the present year (after she had been there a part of two winters) that the State could not afford to buy linsey underwear for insane women. A beastly shame to the dignity of the State of Kentucky, if such a thing as dignity, she yet presume to claim.

Recently I noticed a comment by some paper, presuming that Gov. Beckham had no knowledge of the brutality existing at Lakeland; possibly he did not, but I know what he did know. I was informed on the 25th day of December, 1902, by an individual in a position to know, that my wife was, by her lady attendants, inhumanly treated. I promptly informed Gov. Beckham in a lengthy letter, giving minute details and requesting his excellency to make a great satisfaction to die as my Savior did—between two thieves. The doctor and lawyer fainted and the editor got well.—Ex.

Put individuality in all you do, and strive to prove the superiority of the individual. Give your best energies to the life-work you choose, and strive to make the best of the material. Determine that whatever you do shall be done well.

While the Democrats of Daviess county are doing homage to Gov. Beckham because of Mrs. Beckham's nativity, I beg to inform you that my wife was also a native of Daviess county, and well she was not so fortunate as to marry a Democratic Kentucky Governor, yet she was of good parentage and prior to the misfortune of losing her mind, was a refined, educated, intelligent lady. My most recent revised conclusions on our political predicament and Democratic administration, are that both are a left-handed success. We got not what we hoped for and expected, but in lieu thereof, a heritage without end, to expectations.

If any machine Democrat should chance to doubt any statement or statements herein made, either by interrogation or declaration, it would afford me a source of the most exquisite pleasure, to alleviate the gentleman's doubt, by a confirmation on oath, of the facts herein cited. Gov. Beckham as the duties of his office required, presumed to take charge of asylums, by appointing etc., subordinates, and if he afterwards became too busy by reason of the multirious duties of office in contracting, collecting, etc., to attend to matters of such insignificance, he should so have informed the voters of Kentucky (from whence his exultation emanated) that one Governor was insufficient to serve the people of Kentucky and have had Allie W. Young and Capt. Calhoun appointed to assist him, the legislature to affix the price thereof.

In order to be styled a loyal Democrat should I stand by with my arms complacently folded and my tongue adhered to the roof of my mouth and see my insane wife treated with fiendish barbarity? Nay verily, call me a Democratic Spaniard. Recall, if you please, those brutal scenes in Cuba, when the sanctity of feminine virtue was but a sickening prey to the sexual peopleness of Spanish power and compare it to the record made by the Hopkinsville Asylum. The humane element of society in this Commonwealth regardless of party affiliations, should rise en masse, obliterate the practice and dethrone the power that sanctions the perpetuity of such unprecedented vandalism.

GOOD-BYE TO CALHOUN.

BY N. T. KELLEY.

My cherished, my loving wife and I. Will sail at expense of Kentucky. Don't cry, nor sigh, for money galore. But merely wish to be lucky.

O'er the billows will we roam,
From our loving friends at home,
All because I made a strike so lucky,
No longer am I poor, for I got the money sure,
But I soaked it hard to friends in old Kentucky.

Your ship just let'er go,
Insouciance let'em throw,
For I know that such is just and rightly sung,
With a longing do I crave now to ride the fair waves,
For the present, I will leave it all to Young.

Good-bye, don't cry, for soon we'll meet again,
If our voyage is fated to be lucky,
To return, I do intend, and some money with you spend,
On election day this fall in old Kentucky.

"You are dying" said the doctor to the country editor as he lay on his death bed after long weary years of toil. "And do you think I am going?" said the editor. "Yes I am sure," said the doctor. The dying editor turned his head and looked at him who had come to make out his last will, said, "And you think I am dying?" "Yes I know it," said the lawyer. The dying editor then said to the doctor, "How much do I owe you?" "About $100," said the doctor. The editor then turned to the lawyer, "How much do I owe you?" "About $100," said the lawyer. The editor then turned to the doctor and the lawyer, "Why do you make such a request?" the lawyer and doctor asked simultaneously.

"Well," said the editor, "it will be a great satisfaction to die as my Savior did—between two thieves." The doctor and lawyer fainted and the editor got well.—Ex.

FREE TRIPS TO ST. LOUIS WORLD'S FAIR.
ALL EXPENSES OF THE 120 MOST POPULAR SCHOOL TEACHERS IN THE STATE PAID.

KENTUCKY BUILDING WORLD'S FAIR

School children and public generally invited to vote to determine the most popular in every county. Votes ten cents each, ten cent at one time or ten cents at five times. Every voter given the satisfaction of seeing his vote counted. Every voter given a chance to win a prize. Every voter given a chance to win a prize. Every voter given a chance to win a prize.

THE VOTES WILL BE TEN CENTS EACH, TEN CENTS EACH, TEN CENTS EACH.

At ten cents each every school child in the State will be able to cast at least one vote for his or her favorite teacher. But the voting will not be confined to school children. PARENTS OF PUPILS OR ANY OF THEIR FRIENDS MAY VOTE. The purpose of the Association is to select the most popular school teacher in each county, as so considered by the public generally, as well as by the school children. Ballots contain ten spaces, so pupils or parents may cast ten votes. It may be done by writing his or her name on one of the spaces and sending it to the Association. It is not required that the name of the person voting be given at all. All of the spaces for voters' names may be left blank. The Association wishes, however, to enroll in the Kentucky Building at St. Louis next year the name of every child who cast one or more votes in the contest. Pupils are asked therefore to sign their names plainly to the ballots.

ALL EXPENSES OF THE TEACHERS WILL BE PAID BY THE ASSOCIATION. This will include railroad transportation from Louisville to St. Louis and return, board of one of the best hotels in the city for six days and admission to the exposition grounds for six days.

THREE PARTIES WILL BE MADE UP FROM THE MOST POPULAR TEACHERS to make the trip more profitable and more enjoyable. Each of these parties will consist of forty (40) teachers. This would make a total of 120 teachers, but as there are only 119 counties in Kentucky, the Association has decided to allow two teachers to represent each county, and the second most popular teacher from that county—Jefferson excepted—which casts the greatest number of votes in the contest. ALL TEACHERS IN THE STATE STAND ON AN EQUAL FOOTING in this contest. The teacher with twenty pupils may receive more votes than the teacher with five or six times as many enrolled in his or her school, because the voting is not confined to children. The public will be the teacher of a five month school, which closed in November or December, the opportunity to be voted for during the vacation period.

ANY NUMBER OF BALLOTS MAY BE CAST AT ONE TIME. There is no limit. The more dollars sent in for any one teacher the more votes he or she will be credited with. ONE DOLLAR CASTS TEN VOTES; TWO DOLLARS CASTS TWENTY VOTES; THREE DOLLARS CASTS THIRTY VOTES; FOUR DOLLARS CASTS FORTY VOTES; FIVE DOLLARS CASTS FIFTY VOTES; TEN DOLLARS CASTS A HUNDRED VOTES; ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS CASTS ONE THOUSAND VOTES.

All of the money received in this contest, over and above that used in defraying expenses of the trip, will be sent in for any one teacher the more votes he or she will be credited with. The result will be announced in every paper in the state, and in addition to this, a congratulatory message will go to the teacher elected in each county. Later the details of the trip will be arranged, each teacher chosen being given the privilege of selecting the month—June, July or August, 1904—in which he or she wants to make the trip.
